

Another Year Ends!

But One with Some Major Successes for Colorado Construction

Another year over which has seen the Company undertake a variety of projects both large and small. We have constructed a number of bonded warehouses at both Glen Turner, Livingston and Inchdairnie, Glenrothes

Inchdairnie

Glen Turner

Looking forwards there are plans already afoot for further developments at both sites including further warehouses, additional tank farms or upgrades and improvements and amendments to the existing infrastructure systems

The Isles

Two distilleries completed with additional facilities of: - visitor centres, accommodation and storage

Borodale – Raasay

Torabhaig - Skye

Apex House – Works completed at APEX 1, 2 & 3 after 2 years on and off site, it was closed up and offices removed in November

Challenges overcome included weather, ferries and long distances away from the office.
Well done to the contracts teams in getting the works to completion!

Looking Forwards Have a Great Xmas and New Year

On going Projects

- RCT – Palace of Holyrood House

- SVQ L4 Construction Management – 3 No. Well done to Charles Buchanan, Chris Hendry and Richard Cassidy on completion of the award

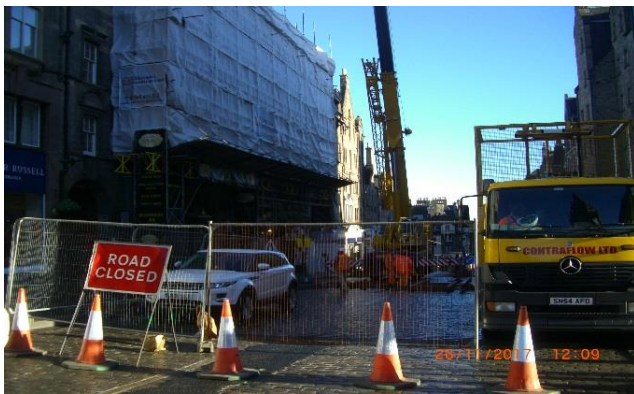

Up and coming / on going

- SVQ L4 Construction Management – 5 No. If you have a training need please contact HSEQ to discuss

Over the past month we have been lift crazy!

123 High Street – Road Closure

Lifting in structural steel before the Christmas embargo, work was carried out early Sunday morning and completed without issue or complaint from local residents

Palace of Holyrood House – Initial Lift

The link beam ties from the front and back scaffold of Abbey Strand being dropped in to place ready for the temporary roof structure

Work was undertaken during the day with restrictions in place to prevent access by public and palace staff and was successfully achieved with no issues from the public and royalties!!

Athletes paddling under Colorado Sponsorship

Here is an update on Eilidh and Angus Gibson's 2017 successes.

Eilidh Gibson, GB Senior and U23 Canoe Slalom team with her two team mates, won the Senior and U23 European and World Championships this year. In this exciting event the 3 paddlers race together one behind the other down the white-water slalom course. Eilidh went on to come 4th in the individual event at the Senior World Championships in Pau, France, in September and is on the Tokyo 2020 British Canoeing programme.

Younger brother Angus is also on the GB Canoe Slalom Podium Potential programme. He finished the 2017 season by winning the Scottish Senior and U23 Championships as well as winning his first GB National Senior event at Teesside. He is now ranked 4th overall in Britain in men's Canadian Singles
